Detailed Action

The response has been received and entered on November 7, 2002 as paper no. 5.

The text of those sections of Title 35, Code not included in this action can be found in the prior Office action.

35 U.S.C. 102

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments have been considered as they apply to the new grounds of rejection.

Applicant argues "the cited printed publication does not contain every element of the claimed invention." (page 2 of response). This argument is not persuasive because Applicant has admitted the sale of the claimed cultivar as early as 1998 in the United Kingdom and having obtained the plant, the skilled artisan would have been able to "make" the claimed invention by vegetative propagation of the purchased material, using methods well known in the art. Clearly, if an invention is on sale to the public, then the public must have possession of it. Thus the publication cited in the rejection in the prior Office action provides an enabling disclosure.

Because none of the arguments support Applicants' conclusion that a foreign breeder's right certificate over a year prior to domestic filing cannot be a bar under 35 USC § 102(b), even where Applicant made the plant stock available to the public, albeit outside this country, over a year prior to domestic filing, the applicability of a rejection, where both of these conditions arise, under 35 USC § 102(b) is maintained.

Summary

No claim is allowed.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
